New Students Enroll This Fall At Grand Saline High

From as close as Fruitvale o as far as Hawaii, new students came to enroll in GSHS this fall. GS increased this year's attendance by adding 25 new students, the largest number in years, according to Mrs. Bailey, school secretary.

Zondra Cooper moved to GS after living in Mabank for 3 years. Friends and relatives are what brought her here. Being a senior this year, she hopes to make it the best year ever. She was hesitant to move to a new school, but she found GS to be a very warm and friendly place.

She hopes to become a social worker for abused children when she graduates.

John Robert Wise moved o GS this past summer. He came from Tuttle, Oklahoma, where he lived for several years. John likes the school and enjoys the people here.

He attends 3 morning classes at Robert E. Lee and ravels back to GS for his hree afternoon classes.

April Kepp is from Iowa. She moved to Grand Saline o be closer to relatives and friends. She compliments our school, saying that the people here are nice and fun o be around. The work is fairly easy and the teachers are nice. She comments that she likes the way we talk.

Ami and Shea Reynolds moved here from Dallas. They say that they like the school and that people here are nice. "The school is a lot smaller, but it's fun to be here."

John Smith moved here from Hawaii. He said that there was no particular reason for moving here, they just thought it would be a nice place to live.

John likes the football team. "Where I came from our team always lost," he said.

Here everyone is from the same race, but in Hawaii there are students from all over. Many are from China, Japan, and there are white and black students.

Karen Clark moved to GS from Mt. Vernon in Dallas. She moved to Grand Saline to be closer to relatives and friends. "The school work is pretty easy here, the people are really nice, and it's just a 'homey' place to be.

Mark Duke transferred to GS from Greenville. Mark likes the people here. "The halls could be a little wider and the air conditioner could work more often, but other than that the school is okay."

Band Rece Good Rati

The GSHS band received an "excellent" rating and two "good" ratings at UIL District Contest Oct. 11 at Mesquite.

District bands from regions 2A, 3A, 4A, and 5A participated in the contest. The GS band was classified in the 2A region and competed against Howe, Edgewood, and Van Alstyne.

The judges at the marching contest rated the bands by using a Roman numeral system. This system classifies: I-superior; II-excellent; III-good, IV-fair; and V-poor. Grand Saline received one II and two III's,

GSHS Hires New Teachers

The faculty includes six new teachers this year. It is believed to be the largest new group in a number of years.

Kathy Blanchard is the new librarian assistant. She has previously worked as a real estate associate, tutor, and teacher's aide. Mrs. Blanchard is married and has two children who are enrolled at G.S.I.S.D. "I am glad to be back at the high school as a library assistant," said Mrs. Blanchard.

Sam Priest coaches JV football and varsity basketball. Mr. Priest has previously coached at Rains and Mabank. He teaches intro. biology, study skills, and health. Mr. Priest went to Abilene Christian College. He enjoys all sorts of sports and dipping snuff.

Susan Cates is a first-year teacher. She teaches typing 1, typing 2, accounting, personal business management/record keeping, and data processing/business law. Mrs. Cates is a graduate of East Texas State University. She lives in Edgewood with her husband and two daughters. Among her hobbies are baking and shopping.

Carolyn Landers is the junior and senior English teacher. A graduate of the University of Texas at Dallas, Mrs. Landers has previously taught at corsicana and Navarro College. The student body and faculty make teaching at G.S.H.S. a pleasure for Mrs. Landers. She enjoys playing the piano and spending time with her family.

Bill Elliott, the new algebra 1, algebra 2, and geometry teacher, previously taught at Wills point for 18 years. He obtained his degree at North Texas University. Mr. Elliott's wife has previously taught at Grand Saline and his 3 children have attended G.S.H.S. Among his hobbies are gardening and fishing.

Caroline Hughes, the freshman and sophomore English teacher, lives in Mineola with her husband and son. She worked her way through college at East Texas State University. She is a first year teacher who enjoys working with the students. Among her hobbies are reading and sports.

Coming Up..

Mrs. Hughes English II class will be taking a trip to Dallas Convention Center to see William Shakespere's, "Taming of the Shrew," on December 8.

Many participants in the UIL competition will go to the practice meet in Commerce on December 5 and 6.

The judges at the contest were Charles Herring, Atlanta; Mel Montgomery, SFA University; and Jim Van Zandt, Richland High School.

GSHS band director Murray Allen felt that the band did "exceptionally well" and that they deserved a higher rating.

"When you follow after a band with a reputation like Howe, it's hard to get judged fairly," a GS spectator at the contest said. Howe received three I's.

MOMS Host Dance After Game

Following the football game against Royse City on Oct. 31. MOMS will hold a Halloween dance for GSHS students ata the Civic Center. There will be a small admission fee to pay the disc jockey. Refreshments will be provided.

The MOMS have hosted the Homecoming dance for the past few years. They also provide refreshments at the annual "G" awards and the National Honor Society.

MOMS was formed 4 years ago so the students of GS would have "something to do," said President Betty Adams. Other officers are Kay Sherbert, Treasurer, and Betty Rice, Fund Raiser. The high school Social Commit-

Students Plan Trip

London, England, or bust! Junior and senior English students have a chance to take a trip never offered to them before.

A new teacher at GSHS, Mrs. Carolyn Landers, has made plans to take a group of students to England next summer.

The group will spend 10 days and 9 nights sightseeing and learning more about the English language.

To participate in the trip, students must turn in $899 by March 1, 1987. This fee pays for hotel, transportation, and food.

Student Spirit Explodes

The student body proved to be a vital source of spirit again this year contributing time, effort, and lots of imagination to every sport and activity.

The band played a major part in pep rallies as well as football games. Music and yells enlivened crowds and players alike.

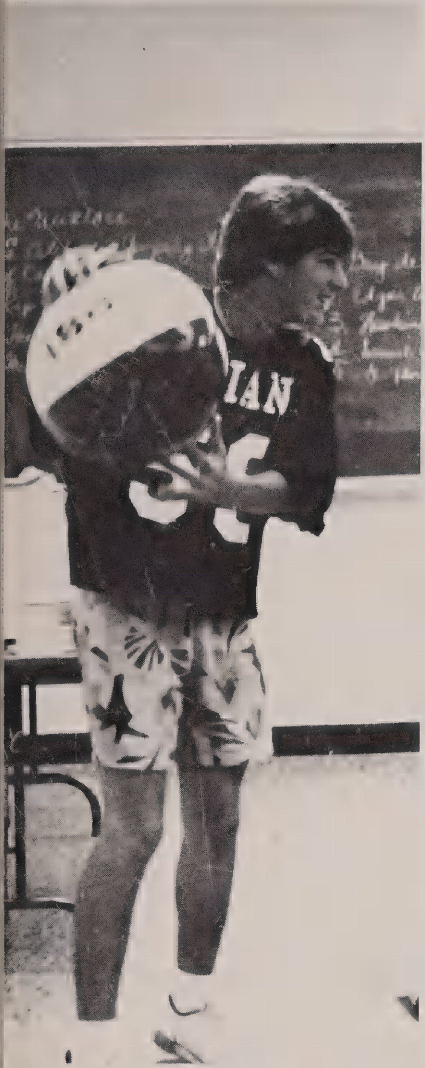
Several students generated spirit during basketball season by dressing in outrageous attire, performing yells, and generating uproars within the audience.

Fridays were designated as dress up days and students from all grades dressed accordingly. A hall decorating contest was held at the close of football season to raise spirit for upcoming playoff games. Seniors were honored with first place for their entry, 'Rebel Yell.' Sophomores received second for their contribution entitled 'A Trip Around the World.' Freshmen entered 'A Time Warp,' and Juniors display was 'Lock up the Bulldogs.'

Heath German and Mr. Hodge watch the action on the floor as the Indians host Quitman.

Marilyn LaPrade and Michelle Mosley are perfect contestants for a baby face contest.

Dusty Presswood challenges the rest of his English III class to a friendly game of volleyball on 'Surfin GSH' day.



Several juniors and seniors prepare for an evening of high-spirited basketball.

Homecoming Excitement

unior Shannon Rhodes is the 1986 Homecoming queen.

The annual Homecoming activities were alive with spirit and tradition again as the Grand Saline Indians overcame the Harleton Wildcats in a decisive 23-6 victory.

Preceding the game, junior Shannon Rhodes was crowned the 1986 Homecoming queen by last year's queen, Tamara Gauer.

The entire week was packed with activities the whole town participated in. The festivities began with the torch parade and bonfire on Thursday evening. Friday was designated as "Orange and Black" day and the student body dressed accordingly. The annual parade coursed through the downtown area followed by a pep rally held in front of Sportsman's Corner.

Cheerleaders Generate Spirit

Cheerleading requires much more than being able to yell loud and learn the words to cheers. It requires responsibility and hard work.

Besides leading cheers at football and basketball games, cheerleaders worked behind the scenes making signs, learning new cheers, decorating the halls, and planning pep rallies.

A variety of activities — cheers and skits by cheerleaders, pep talks by selected people, routines by the majorettes, and music played by the band — enlivened pep rallies.

Fridays were spirit dress-up days chosen by the cheerleaders. The student body dressed to promote the theme.

Even though the pace lessened after football season, the cheerleaders continued to keep up with the demands of basketball season.

The band received a superior rating of I at UIL concert competition, an accomplishment that had not been made by the band in 16 years. They also earned an excellent rating of II in sight reading and the fall marching contest.

Every four years the band takes a trip out of state to perform and to simply have a good time. Orlando, Florida, was the destination chosen for the long-awaited trip this year.

After visiting Wet 'n Wild and Disney World, the band and majorettes performed at Sea World and Epcot Center.

Mr. Murray Allen began the year as the band's director, but due to ill health he retired at mid-term. Band members gave a small party in his honor and presented him with a plaque of appreciation.

Mr. Manuel DeLaRosa stepped in as director at that time and led the band to its greatest accomplishment, a I rating.

Majorettes Do It Again

The GSHS majorettes are on their way to state competition again. The line twirled to "Love Theme" from St. Elmo's Fire at UIL Regional competition and earned a superior rating of I. This score enabled the group to move on to state UIL contest in June.

The GSHS choir boasts a membership of 11 this year. Mrs. Kathy McLelland directed the choir in a Christmas program and a spring concert. The choir members sold candy and cakes to raise money for uniforms. The funds raised also allowed the group to participate in the Sandy Lake contest. The choir ventured to Six Flags in May.

School Begins With New Faces

The science classes began with new teachers, Mr. Sam Priest, Mr. Bailey, and Mr. Grier with their first year of science.

The biology classes did many experiments through the year with mice, dissecting pigs, parasites and the basics of biology.

Physical science, chemistry, and physics classes also put emphasis on lab work, mainly in experiments with chemicals.

Russell Collins and Donna Dodge work hard on experiments in physics.

Checking to see if the mice are male or female are William Barnes and Jimmy Chitty.

April Koepp looks disgusted with her work in physics.

Geometry students work continuously to finish their work before the bell.

Working hard on paper atoms in physical science are freshman Keith Stucky and Paul Illey.

Varsity in Playoffs

With only seven returning lettermen, the Indians had another winning football season and advanced to the playoffs for the fifth year in a row with a 7-3-1 record.

The season began with a come-from-behind victory over Van. The Indians also tied and nearly defeated a tough Mineola team that made the playoffs in 3A.

Against the Edgewood Bulldogs, who were reported to have the best defense in the county, the powerful Indian offense was only forced to punt once on their way to a 34-7 victory.

The Indians cruised through district and earned a playoff spot with only one loss to state-ranked Caddo Mills, 34-21.

In the playoffs, the Indians met an undefeated Eustace team in Canton where they suffered a disappointing 17-8 loss.

Players making All-District first team were (defense) Russell Collins, MVP, Kris Iske, Travis Jones, (offense) Todd Thompson, Kris Iske, and Steve Long.

Named to second team were (defense) Sam King, Todd Thompson, (offense) Travis Jones, and Timmy Rodgers.

Honorable Mention titles were given to (defense) Bruce Gattie, Jeff Elliott, Tony Lovette, (offense) Micah Lewis, Jamie Iley, Preston Moore, Russell Collins, and Lane Garland.

Lady Indians Advance

For the first time since 1983 the varsity volleyball team advanced to the playoffs.

The Lady Indians played Scurry-Rosser for bi-district and a chance to move onward, but they returned home unsuccessful.

Coach Lyna Coleman's varsity squad consisted of one senior, two juniors, two sophomores, and four freshmen. "They were young, inexperienced, and nervous in key situations. But the more time the girls played together the stronger they became," commented Coach Coleman.

The Lady Indians posted a season record of 5-14 and placed second in district with a record of 2-2.

Six members of the team were recognized with All-District Honors. Making the First Team were Julie Perritt and Tascha Neal. Ginny Adams and Christy Gray were named to the Second Team, while Lori Tunnell and Tamara Gauer were both voted as Honorable Mentions.

JV and Freshmen Stay on Top

Both the jv and freshman volleyball teams were the district champions once again. As freshmen, the jv team members took the title. And as eighth graders, the freshmen also won first.

"They started out weak in the season, but after lots of practice and many matches, they eventually won the honor," said first year coach, Mrs. Mary Congleton.

Mr. Kip Humphrey, also a first year coach, taught the freshman players to always practice as if they were playing a real game. "The girls played with intensity and did not let their minds wander," said Coach Humphrey.

The freshman team, in spite of valiant efforts, fell short with a record of 0-6. They combined with the JV for their second game with Van.

Although the junior varsity didn't have a winning record in district, they lost three games by a total of five points, which proves that their record did not do them justice.

"The JV and freshman teams worked very hard and showed much improvment throughout the year," said Coach Sam Priest. "We are looking forward to a better season next year."

Regina Morris, senior point guard, received First Team All-County for the second year in a row and Second Team All-District for her outstanding defense. She averaged 6.2 steals a game and 4.5 assists a game.

Kim Goff, senior wing, scored her all-time high of 337 points to lead all scoring.

Shannon Elliott, junior, turned in the best achievement in scoring free-throws.

Tascha Neal, a freshman, topped the boards with rebounds and blocks. Sonja Vaillencourt and Amanda Carnes helped complete the defense attack.

JV Struggles for Success

The JV team struggled through the season, after losing three athletes to low grades and one to the varsity team. Fortunately their enthusiasm kept them going full speed ahead.

A standout among the players was freshman, Jennifer Sorrells, with her quickness and agility. Recognized as team captains were Ronda Thomas and Sherri Hawkins.

The JV team was guided by Coach Lyna Coleman, assisted with bookkeeping by Coach Mary Congleton.

The JV sets up their defense against Royse City in the Grand Saline gym. The Indians lost the game, 14-11.

JV team members are Coach Lyna Coleman, Ronda Thomas, Melissa Davis, Sherri Hawkins, Lori Stanley, Kristy Milliorn, Jennifer Sorrells, Donna Anderson, and Lesia Cheaney.

Many first-time achievements brought recognition to the girls track team.

The 1600 Meter Relay team, consisting of Regina Morris, Kelli Dietel, Christy Dorough, and Jennifer Sorrells, won first at District and then went on to a Regional Qualifiers meet and won first in their division.

The 400 Meter Relay team placed second at District. Members of this team were Morris, Dietel, Sorrells, and Michele Vick. Morris and Dietel also finsihed first and second in the 200 Meter Dash, which qualified them to go to regionals.

Freshman Tascha Neal threw the shot 35′ 5″ and placed second at the District track meet. Three others, Christy Gray in the high jump, Vick in the hurdles, and Neal in the discus, qualified to attend the regional meet as alternates.

Jennifer Sorrells hands off to Regina Morris in the 1600 Meter Relay during the District Track Meet in Edgewood.

Girls Track Gains Distinction

Showing her perfect form while high jumping is senior Christy Gray. She placed third in the District Meet.

Varsity and JV Win District

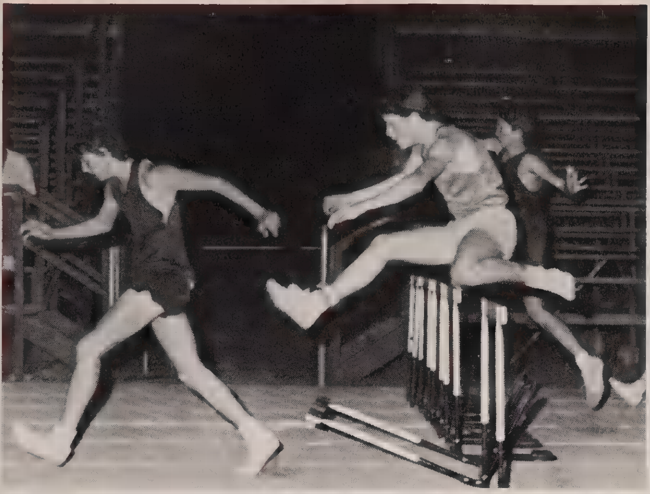
Both the jv and varsity boys track teams won the district 19AA title. It has been over 5 years since either group has won district.

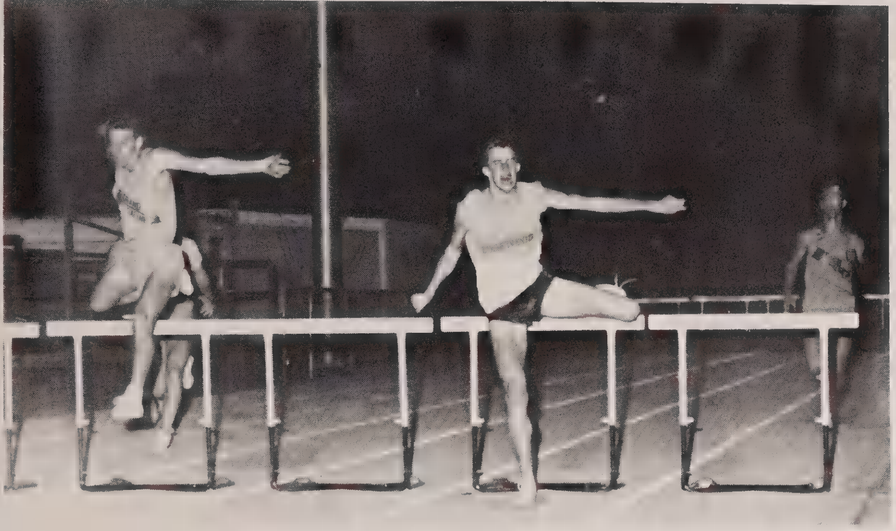
Track season began slowly with only 14 members. These members participated at Hawkins, Lindale, Van, Canton, and Arp. The team as a whole made a weak showing at these meets, however, Todd Thompson, Paul Iley, and the jv 1600 m relay team placed well at the Lindale relays.

Before the district meet, 36 others joined the team as the Indians exploded to win the district titles with 127 and 208 points respectively.



Marshall McCully, Robert Nix, and Bryan Boyles lead the way in the JV 300 m hurdles.

Mike McCown jumps his hurdle in determination at the regional meet.



In the varsity 300 m hurdles, Paul Iley leaps his hurdle as Jimmy Chitty fights to catch up.

Mike McCown — 300 m hurdles

Sluggers in Playoffs

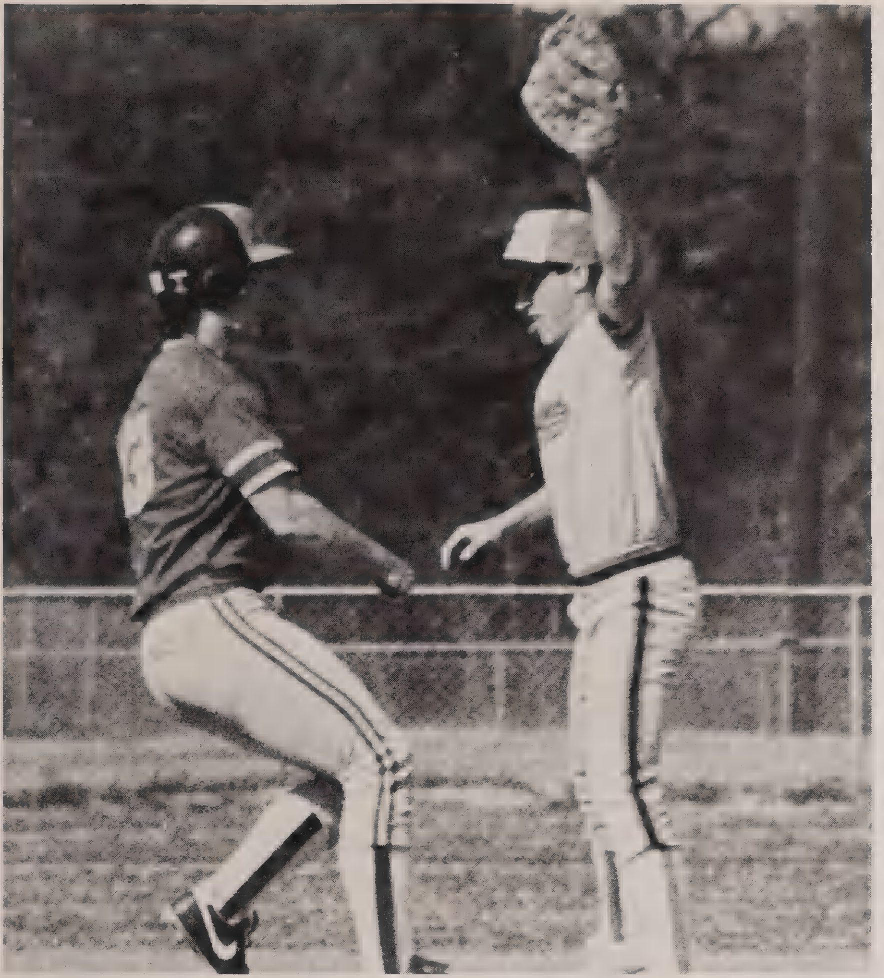
The Indians had a young baseball team this year with only two seniors returning. However, despite having a young team, the Indians had an excellent season and made the playoffs for the first time in five years.

Caddo Mills and the Indians tied for the district title and played a district playoff game in which Caddo scored a last inning run to win the contest 4-3.

The Indians then entered the playoffs as runner-up and faced New Diana, the no. 5 ranked team in Texas. The two teams battled, but neither could score through six innings. During the seventh inning, New Diana scored the lone run of the ballgame to end the Indians impressive season.



Eddie Stanley prepares to gun down a runner at first base.

Tony Lovette and Eddie Stanley try to get this New Diana base runner out.

Ten Netters Go to State

This year has to be recognized as the best year ever for the Indian tennis team. With Kip Humphrey as the new tennis coach, the Indians advanced ten out of twelve players to the state meet in Austin, more than any other school in the state of Texas.

Even though a State Championship was not won, five players advanced to the semi-finals. Senior Bobby Lee advanced in singles as did John and Paul Chambless in doubles. Christy Gray and Tad Denton also advanced to the semi-finals before getting beat out.

Other state participants were doubles teams Jennifer Collier and Mandy Carnes; Brandon Davis and Jon Appleton; and singles player Will Allison.

Coach Kip Humphrey watches in amazement as Jennifer Collier strives to get a ball.

With a look of determination, Tad Denton returns a hard serve.

Showing form, Paul Chambless hits a high backhand winner.

At the state meet in Austin, Will Allison struggles to get to the ball in his first match, which he lost to Will Green, who eventually advanced to the finals.

Right: Returning serve in a dual match with Canton, Christy Gray concentrates on the ball.

JV Dominates District

Kevin White and Jason Tucker warm up before their finals match at the District Tournament.

Grand Saline dominated the District Tennis Tournament by placing first and second in every event, boys and girls singles and doubles.

In girls singles Lisa Land was defeated in the finals by Crystal Phipps. Jennifer Sorrells and Lori Stanley won first place in girls doubles by beating Julie Perritt and Kristi Milliorn.

In boys singles Ray Sorrells defeated Keith German to win first place. Chris Tomlin and Trent Lovette captured the boys doubles title by beating their teammates Kevin White and Jason Tucker.

"We've had a good year, and next year when some of these JV players move up to varsity, they will be able to continue the winning tradition that we have at Grand Saline," commented Coach Humphrey.

Sports Etc.

Regina Martin sprints to the finish line for a victory in the 1600 meter relay.

In the District meet, Kelli Dietel strains to jump far.

As quick as lightning, Mandy Carnes steals the ball from an Edgewood Bulldog.

Middle school secretary Mrs. Neal and principal Gerald Gilbert.

Superintendent Nathan Lee with Mrs. Faye Ann Pearson, Mrs. Joan McCord, Mrs. Sherry Easterling.

Mrs. Grant receives a Certificate of Retirement from Mr. Lee as Ms. Bogan, her secretary, looks on.

High school Principal, Mr. John Hodge, and counselor, Mr. Darrell Lewis, chat while they monitor the parking lot.

New Faces in Administration

This year Grand Saline High School added Mr. John Hodge as its principal. Mr. Hodge, who is recently from Somerset, idolizes John Wayne and has a great sense of humor.

Retiring from the elementary school as principal is Mrs. Mavis Grant. Mrs. Grant served as the principal for 4 years.

There were two open spots on the school board this year. Mr. Walt Bryant recaptured his position and Mr. Johnny Thompson was elected to the other position. All other members maintained their previously held spots.

School board members are (front row) Mr. Walt Bryant, Mr. Eugene Bates, (second row) Mr. David Darnell, Mr. Wiley Garland III, Mr. William Neal, (back row) Mr. Rex White, and Mr. Duane Goff.

MOMS Sponsor Sock Hop

Talking during the Sock Hop are Angela McNickle and Jason Adams.

At the Sock Hop, Katrina Vick, Jana Thompson, Teresa Blizzard, Mandy Wilson, Courtney Teague, Brandi Bjornson, Virginia Johnstone, and Sheila Allcor have fun.

Rachel Hardy shows off her crown and flowers that she was given after she was chosen Queen.

The Sock Hop was given to the middle school by the MOMS on Nov. 8. Many students attended and had a lot of fun dancing, talking with friends, and eating refreshments. Everyone seemed to have a wonderful time.

At the annual Harvest Queen Pageant, (which was held in the elementary auditorium), Rachel Hardy won the title of Harvest Queen. Angie Foster represented eighth grade, Lana Davis, seventh, and Rachel Hardy, sixth.

Amazed at his insights is Ryan Tomlin.

Telling jokes at the Sock Hop are James Marshall, Mark Easley, and Christy Snow.

Heath Koonce sits quitely in social studies class, while his classmates are ready to answer the question.

Many activities went on in the classrooms this year.

Mrs. Loyd had Ms. Jana Russell of the SWEPCO company come talk to her science classes.

The newspaper staff worked very hard to get all the issues of the Teepee Times out.

The reading classes enjoyed reading stories and other articles out of the Scholastic Scope magazines.

Students accomplished many things this year and attempted to keep their grades as high as possible.

Mandy Wilson, Kevin Lyle, Cindy Lynn, and Robin Batchelor listen to Mrs. Fuller explain a story.

Mrs. Loyd's science class had an employee

Spirit Soars in Middle School

Seventh and eighth grade cheerleaders are (bottom to top) Cindy Vess, Andrea Meyer, Apryl Koonce, Christy Snow, Lana Davis, and (head) Sarah Fuller.

The middle school majorettes and cheerleaders did many things to add spirit to the middle school. They worked together at making pep rallies good and keeping the boys pepped up.

The majorettes went to summer camp in Pruitt, where Susie Crim taught them their routines. Their sponsor was Mr. Allen.

The cheerleaders attended summer camp at SMU. There they were taught many cheers, some of which they used during the football season. Their sponsor was Mrs. Ellis.

Cheerleaders form a pyramid to "Good Luck."

Mistie Slavens and Ryan Tomlin are the sixth grade favorites.

Cindy Vess and Dale Iley are the seventh grade favorites.

Highlights

Getting Started Again

Veteran elementary students were ready to work when they returned to school this year. But mostly, they were excited to see all their friends.

Kindergarteners were filled with wonder and anxiety and sometimes even a few tears.

A children's book fair was held in the early fall which gave students an opportunity to buy and read books that interested them.

Older students took on greater responsibilities while the younger students learned to have greater attention spans as they were taught the three basic R's.

Starting back to school is as much fun for Miss Armstrong as for all of her first grade students.

Brock Stephens, (left) waits patiently for Casey Rutherford, Elizabeth Wheeler, and Billy Joe Vess to leave the all-time-favorite class, language arts.

Climbing around on the monkey bars are Janae Robinson, Cara Carnes, Kim Walker, Amber Presswood, Brian Taylor, Apryl Marshall, Ashley Smith, and Audra Hazel.

Choosing a book from the Book Fair is not as easy as Josh Streety assumed.

Mrs. Newburn assists Stacy Akins, Joseph McPherson, and Candy Cotter with their mathematics assignments.

Vaiting for Mrs. Joyce Russell's English lass to begin are Drione Phommachack, Missy Kaufman, Jessica Elmore, Mindy Martin, Leah Koonce, and Jana Ivey.

Exciting Holidays

Mrs. Bruner's kindergarten class poses for a Halloween picture.

Elementary brought forth seasonal holidays with much excitement.

Halloween was a favorite among kindergarten students. Each class dressed up in costumes. Teachers added to the spirit by telling tales and cutting out Jack-O'Lanterns.

Thanksgiving and Christmas brought smiles and laughter to everyone's face. Some classes had Christmas parties where they exchanged gifts.

Valentines Day was the next holiday experienced by the elementary. Classes exchanged Valentine cards which made everyone's day cheerful.

Last of all, Easter. Many students thought they were too old for Easter egg hunting, but the younger students kept the tradition alive.

Checking out the Valentine boxes is Amy Woodall.

Feeling at Home

The first grade students were separated into four classrooms this year. All teachers, Miss Stacy Armstrong, Mrs. Carol Ann Davis, Mrs. Gloria Gilbert, and Mrs. Janet Gilbert, agreed that the first graders were so active and eager to learn that they had to be kept busy every minute of the day.

Each class participated in many interesting activities. Among these were making soup, popping popcorn, studying the four food groups, and putting on skits. But all first graders agreed that their favorite part of school was recess.

Displaying the Brownie Troop 433 float in the Christmas Parade are Amy Dickerson, Amber Phillips, and Candy Rohus.

On their way to the playground, Juan Estrada and Amanda Hill stop to stare curiously at the photographer.

Making a chain for the Christmas tree is fun for Ty Evans, James Coates, and Leanne Rogers.

Getting the Hang of It

A gorilla (Travis Jones) surprises Jody Lovette with a bear hug during lunch.

B. J. Hocutt prepares to read the library book he has picked out.

Miss Yarbough helps Jakoby Kearney while Amanda Gilmer, Aaron Miller, Shavon Brown, Jenifer Allcorn, Josh Carnes, Kirk Hodge, Ryan Mallett, and Brandi McClelland watch.

he second grade classes entertain at the hristmas program.

Second graders really enjoyed participating in craft projects. Log cabins, paper airplanes, table top communities, and Indian costumes were just a few of the things they made throughout the year.

Mrs. Shively's room had an airplane flying contest. Mrs. Thompson's class had a chili cookoff and a "Texas food tasting party." Clothes for needy Mexicans were collected by Miss Yarbrough's students.

Second graders also liked to do creative writing. Some students even wrote and illustrated their own picture books.

Participating in a reading assignment in Mrs. Shively's class are Joe Amos, Jeremy Bullard, Jennifer Parker, and Misty Denton.

Moving Onward

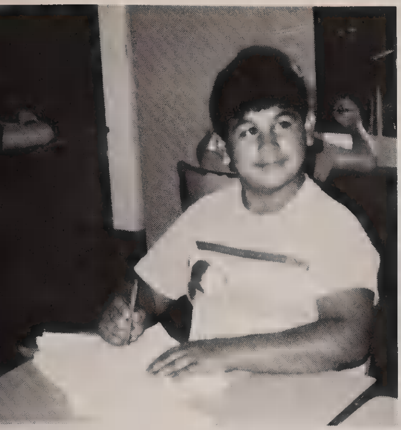
In the fall, third grade classes visited several points of interest in Grand Saline. Some of these were the Salt Palace, Public Library and Depot, and the old tomato shed. Local citizens conducted the tours and answered the children's questions.

The third graders also took a trip to the Grand Saline Post Office to correlate with their Post Office Unit in Social Studies. Mrs. Stacy's class set up their own classroom post office and assigned Postal boxes and a Postmaster.

A field trip to Dallas Museum of Natural History, the Fish Aquarium, and the Science Building completed their school year.

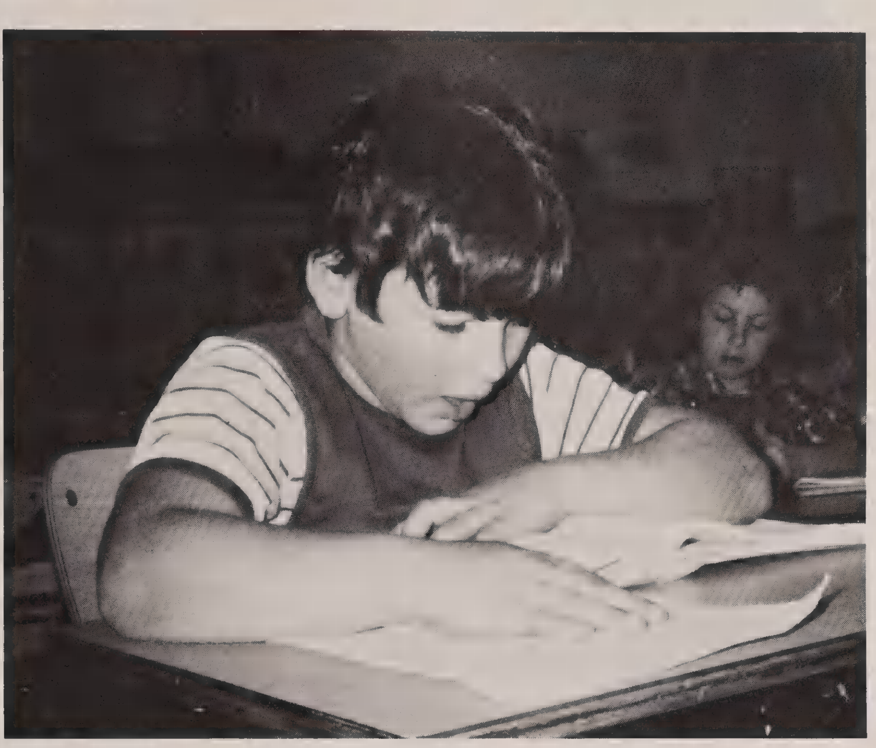
Brandi Autry helps prepare soup in homeroom class.

Mrs. Hill's third grade class enjoys reading.



Porfirio Gutierrez takes a short break to daydream.

Doing classroom work are Dale Brittain and Hollie Veach.



eslie Carroll and Darla Rosemond attend e classroom Post Office.

Chris McBeath attends a high school football game.

Mrs. Erwin looks on as Eddie Flores, Casey Vaughn, Keith Nicholson, Lane Melton, and Rebecca Chandler receive Halloween candy.

Heading for the Top

All the fourth grade students ventured to the Planetarium and to Berg Field Park in Tyler for a field trip.

Mrs. Hightower's class presented to the elementary, a Sesquicentennial Flag. They also marched in the homecoming parade with a victory banner.

Mrs. Lott's students prepared mini-research papers on different types of animals. At Christmas, they took fruit to the occupants of local nursing homes. They also studied Texas and had a chili cook-off.

Mrs. Russell's pupils constructed electronic machines, using batteries to make them run.

Mrs. Fisher's class entered various poster contests. Joe McPherson won with his drawing of the Salt Palace. All classes enjoyed the lessons of McGruff the Crime Dog.

Glen Davis stops to take a rest after the homecoming bonfire.

Helping check math papers, Cody Woodall and Tammy Martin fin it not so easy.

School isn't always work, work, work for Allison Zenkner and Anna Roberts.

Joseph McPherson has fun drawing airplanes during math class.

In his own world, Morgan Whatley thinks of a story to write for language class.

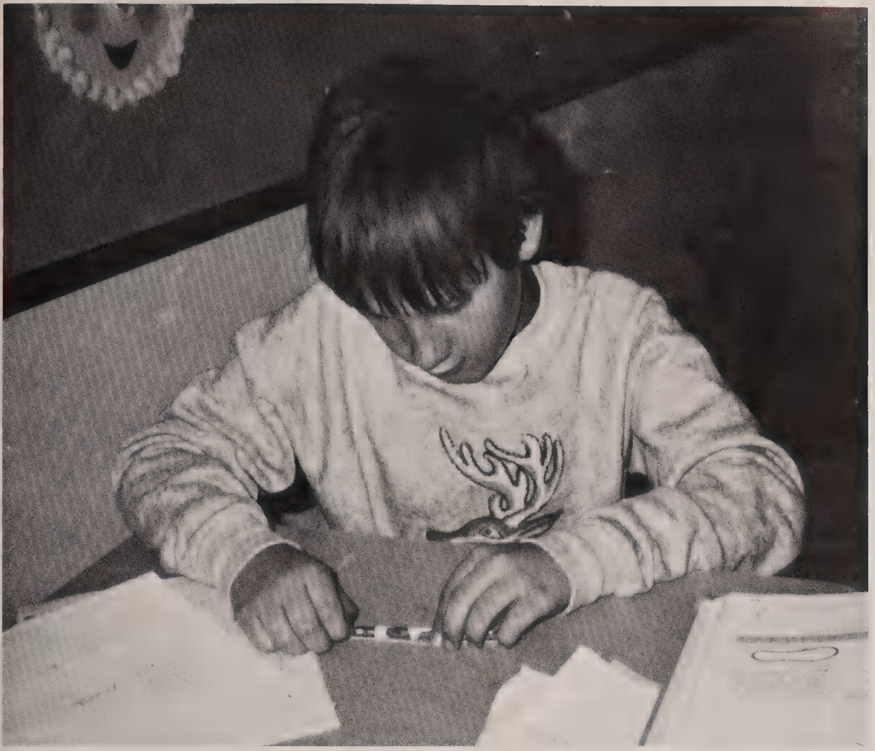
Making the Grade

Kerry Kindle tries to concentrate.

Demonstrating a math problem is Lennis Rohus.

Finishing up class assignments are Eric Autry and Todd Evans.

Michelle Morgan and Patricia Rowe work continuously in math.



The fifth graders took a trip to Dallas.They visited the Museum of Natural History and the Aquarium at Fair Park.

The students conducted several studies. Mrs. Veliz's class incubated several types of eggs.

Students also made projects depicting Indians. Mrs. Thompson's class made shadow boxes to famous explorers.

Mrs. Love's students studied the branches of government. The study was culminated by a visit from D. A. Tommy Wallace. They also wrote letters to the state legislature.

Fifth graders prepared themselves for the middle school.

Jeremiah Carnes studies math.

Bringing in Christmas are Clinton Chaney, Lennis Rohus, Misty Morphis, and Jane Woodall.

Winding It Up

Vickie Dugan helps serve students at field day.

Matt Grimes dresses as an Indian for Thanksgiving.

English as a second language was introduced this year to the elementary and was taught by Mrs. Yarbrough. Students in the class were Jorge Fabian, Patricia Barbalena, Grace Gomez, Juan Estrada, Pedro Barbalena, Alba Valladares, Oma Fabian, Rony Corral, Rolanda Fabian Junior Gutierrez, Juan Fabian, Mari Estrada, Margarita Barbalena, Zulem Corral.

moved here from Dallas. They say that they like the school and that people here are nice. "The school is a lot smaller, but it's fun to be here."

John Smith moved here from Hawaii. He said that there was no particular reason for moving here, they just thought it would be a nice place to live.

John likes the football team. "Where I came from our team always lost," he said.

Here everyone is from the same race, but in Hawaii there are students from all over. Many are from China, Japan, and there are white and black students.

Karen Clark moved to GS from Mt. Vernon in Dallas. She moved to Grand Saline to be closer to relatives and friends. "The school work is pretty easy here, the people are really nice, and it's just a 'homey' place to be.

Mark Duke transferred to GS from Greenville. Mark likes the people here. "The halls could be a little wider and the air conditioner could work more often, but other than that the school is okay."

which gave them an over-all average of III.

The judges at the contest were Charles Herring, Atlanta; Mel Montgomery, SFA University; and Jim Van Zandt, Richland High School.

GSHS band director Murray Allen felt that the band did "exceptionally well" and that they deserved a higher rating.

"When you follow after a band with a reputation like Howe, it's hard to get judged fairly," a GS spectator at the contest [illegible]d. Howe received three [illegible]s.

Band members are busy preparing for other contests such as All-District Band and Solo and [illegible] which will be coming up in a few months. Between practicing half-time shows for football games, participating in pep rallies and competing in contests, the band members are keeping a pretty tight schedule.

MOMS Host Dance After Game

Following the football game against Royse City on Oct. 31. MOMS will hold a Halloween dance for GSHS students ata the Civic Center. There will be a small admission fee to pay the disc jockey. Refreshments will be provided.

The MOMS have hosted the Homecoming dance for the past few years. They also provide refreshments at the annual "G" awards and the National Honor Society.

MOMS was formed 4 years ago so the students of GS would have "something to do," said President Betty Adams. Other officers are Kay Sherbert, Treasurer, and Betty Rice, Fund Raiser. The high school Social Commit-

"Probably some kind of cacti, because not many things would mess with me." "I would be a rose so I could show off my radiant beauty to all those who look upon me." These were two of the many answers to the question, "what kind of plant would you be if you could change?"

The Psychology class taught by Mr. Ron McCown have been participating in a number of personality tests designed to help a person distinguish his personality type by asking what he would be if he could change.

"What kind of means of conveyance would you be and why?" One student answered, "I would be a Porche, because they are fast [illegible]." Another prefers to be a Mack truck because nobody messes with a Mack truck."

Students Plan Trip

London, England, or bust! Junior and senior English students have a chance to take a trip never offered to them before.

A new teacher at GSHS, Mrs. Carolyn Landers, has made plans to take a group of students to England next summer.

The group will spend 10 days and 9 nights sightseeing and learning more about the English language.

To participate in the trip, students must turn in $899 by March [illegible]7. This fee pays for hotel, transportation and [illegible] [illegible]s are trying to raise the money by holding small group fund
